

Commander Rudy Komisza

Commander Rudy Komisza began his career as a police officer with the Long Beach Police Department in 1992. He has a diverse work history that includes: Patrol, the Field Training Officer Program, Jail Administration, Vice Investigations, Gang Enforcement, Drug Investigations, Internal Affairs, the Office of Counter Terrorism, and Juvenile Investigations.

Commander Komisza is currently assigned as the Commander of the North Patrol Division. This division has approximately 105 police officers and civilian employees who provide quality service to the North Long Beach area. The North Patrol Division encompasses the geographical area north of Wardlow Road and borders the cities of Signal Hill, Compton, Paramount, Bellflower, Lakewood, and Carson.

Commander Komisza encourages a professional philosophy that promotes collaborative partnerships between the Long Beach Police Department and the community to address public safety concerns, while providing police services with the highest levels of dignity and respect.

Commander Komisza earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science oriented toward Public Policy and Administration. He is a current board member of the Long Beach Command Officers Association and is a graduate of the Sherman Block Supervisory Institute Class #169, as well as the Federal Bureau of Investigations National Academy Session #232.